

LOCAL DOINGS IN TABLOID FORM

Sandio Bartino, 636 Miller st., run over by auto, County hospital. Machine number 17275.

W. T. Kirby, former president of Kirby Savings bank, insolvent, said to have given $20,000 of depositors' cash to gambling house. Judge Landis trying to find out about it.

William McGill gave pint of blood to save life of Henry G. McGill, his father, an official in Postal Telegraph Co. Elder McGill in Milwaukee hospital. May die.

Dean Walter T. Sumner operated on for appendicitis today at St. Luke's hospital.

Someone threw bomb into home of Frank Nigro, 221 Kensington av., West Pullman. Hurled family out of bed. Wrecked house. Nigro had received blackmail letters.

Ivan Andric, 25, 2401 Wentworth av., breaking stones in quarry of Union Lime Co. at 19th and Loomis sts. 12-lb. stone fell on head. Skull fractured. County Hospital.

Louis Vancek, 12, 1258 W. Ohio st., flipping freights in Irving Park. Fell under car. Leg mangled. St. Ann's Hospital.

Hulda Reney, 39, negress, 4531 S. State st., walking on track. State st. car. Fatally injured. Provident Hospital.

Abraham Fishman's delicatessen store, 1308 S. Kedzie av., ruined by fire. Damage $2,000.

Red Cross Christmas seals on sale. Chicago Tuberculosis Institute in charge of distribution.

Walter B. Sharp, Houston oil magnate, rushed here to be operated on four weeks ago, dead in Mercy Hospital.

James Theoharis, 11446 Schlitz av., dead from injuries received in Pullman shops Nov. 22.

Highwayman shot and killed last night by Patrolman Bernard Wallenta while holding up Richard Kissane in front of 2952 Harvard st. identified as John Harris, 32, ex-convict.

R. C. Haskins, president of the International Harvester Co., recalled to stand. Will tell government authorities why trust should not be dissolved.

Lifesaving crew asked to watch for schooner Evelyn Simons, due yesterday.

Car and auto colided at Harrison st. and Homan av. Six injured.

Earl Blackman, runaway messenger boy of Drexel State Bank, sent letters to mother and sweetheart that business strain was too much. Says nothing about $2,600, he's alleged to have taken.

Carl W. Weise, 70, Benton Harbor, widower, married Mrs. F. Mathilda Loehrke, 68, widow.

"Gump" Leahy, called gunman by police, shot Joe Grand in leg in bar of Pickwick Club, 3033 Cottage Grove av.

Miss Maggie Teyte, grand opera star, sang at Hull House, Chicago Orphans' Home and James C. King Home for Old Men Thanksgiving.

Flights by Wellington Quirk,